Schedule (as at 20/04/11 – subject to updates)

Liaba Trachtler, Trachtlerinnen, Volksmusikanten:

The following is the Gaufest weekend program, detailing the Volksmusik Study Groups schedule:

For Friday, July 1:

2:00 – 3:00 PM. "How to Play Volkstänze", directed by Peggy Mueller of the B.S.G.T.E.V. "D'Miesbacher Oimtaler", Denver. Peggy will present helpful hints on both the button box and the accordion.

3:00 – 4:30 PM. D'Waidler Musi from Witzmannsberg, under the direction of Georg Frank, will lead a special study session on "The Zwiefache" including the story, playing the music and the dance.

4:30 to 5:30 PM. "Brass Study Group", directed by Andy Hacker, of SVEV D'Oberlandler, Milwaukee.

For Saturday, July 2:

1:30 – 2:30 PM. "Accordion and Button Box Study Group, directed by Joe Smiell, SVEV D'Oberlandler, Milwaukee.

2:30 – 3:30 PM. "Button/piano accordion maintenance and repair", by Dennis Hoshield, of Edelweiss, Detroit.

This will be followed by a Volksmusik "jam session" (all instruments) where those in attendance announce their choice of music and play in rotation. No time limit.

Notes:

The Volksmusik Stube will be open all weekend.

For Study Groups requiring additional time, or for newly formed Study Groups, the Stube may be occupied for two-hour increments. Times are on a first come-first served basis. Please inscribe your times on the list posted to the door of Gatlin A2 and A3 rooms, to lock in.

All Trachtler, visitors and musicians, are welcome at any time, to visit the Volksmusik Stube and join in, meet others, or merely enjoy what is under way. There are frequent surprises and spontaneous music-related activities presented in the Volksmusik Stube. Don't miss any!

Volkssänger will be organized, subject to demand.
